

Fifth Eothinon Doxasticon

Mode pl. 1.

π
q

^(□)
Glo - - - - ry ^(κ) to the Fa - ther ^(□) and the Son ^χ and the Ho - - ly ^q Spir - - - - it

π
q

^(Δ)
O how wise are ^(□) Your judg - - - - ments

O Christ ^(κ) How was it that to Pe - - - - ter [♂] You grant - - - ed ^(Δ) to un - der - stand ^δ Your res - ur - rec ^(□) - - tion by the grave clothes a - - lone ^(κ) where - as to Luke and Cle - - - o - - pas ^(□) You spoke as You walked with them ^π and in speaking did not im - me - - di - - ate - - ly re - veal your - - self

And for this rea - son You were up - braid - - ed as the on - ly vis - i - tor to Je - ru - - sa - - lem who was un - a - ware of what had hap - pened there in those days Then You who ar - range ev - ery - thing for the ben - e - fit of Your crea - - - ture in - ter - pret - ed the proph - e - cies con - cern - - - ing You and when You blessed the bread they rec - og - nized

You E - ven be - fore this their hearts were burn - ing in rec - og - ni - - - - - tion of You ^π ^(κ) Then to the Dis - ci - ples who were gath - ered ^(Δ) togeth ^(κ) er _____ at _____ once _____ they _____ clear - ly _____ pro - claimed _____ Your res - ur - rec - - - tion ^(Δ) by which have mer - - - cy on _____ us _____ ^(Π) Δ