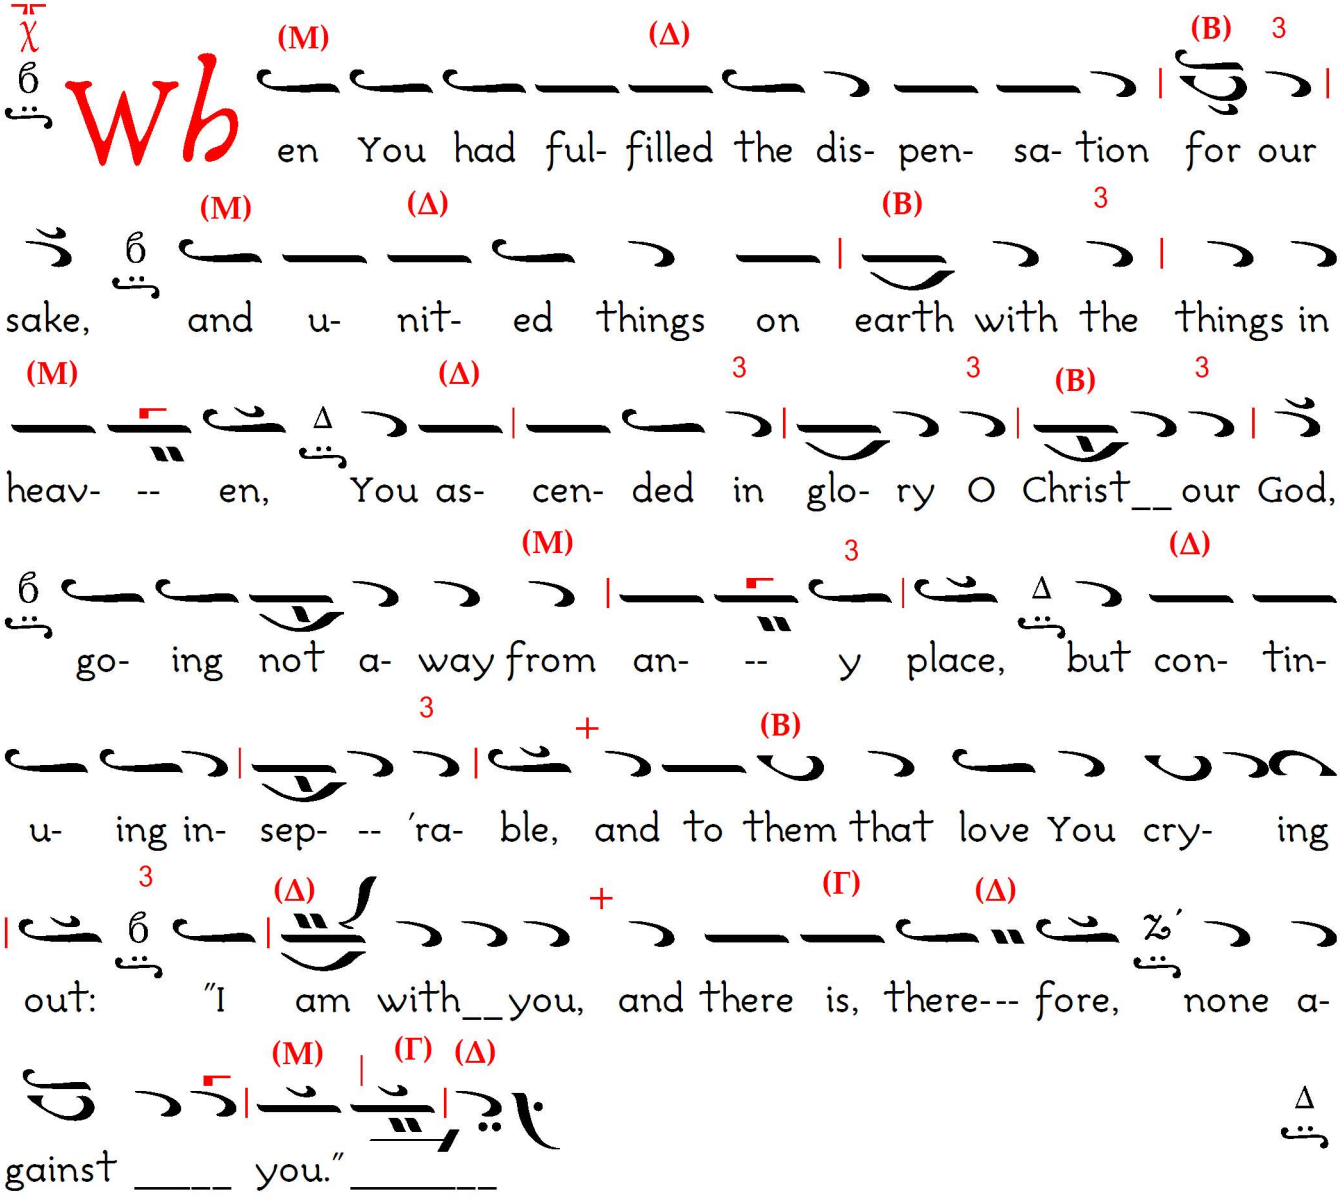
Kontakion

When You had fulfilled the dispensation for our sake, * and united things on earth with the things in heaven, * You ascended in glory, O Christ our God, * going not away from any place, * but continuing inseparable, * and to them that love You crying out: * "I am with you, and there is, therefore, none against you."


Mode λ Bou